

2010 International CCBD Forum

Research Into Practice: Achieving Academic and Social Competence with Challenging Students

Doubletree Hotel New Orleans
New Orleans, LA

February 11-12, 2010

Thursday

- 7:30 am Registration
- 8:30-10:30 Opening general session: *The Archeology of Instructional Processes: Recent Discoveries of Four Cornerstones for Classroom and School Success
Dr. Richard West, Utah State University – Logan, UT
- 10:30-10:45 Break
- 10:45-11:45 Facilitated Learning
Lunch
- 12:45 – 2:45 General session: *Five Simple Strategies to Meet the Needs of the Academically Misunderstood
Dr. Greg J. Benner, University of Washington – Tacoma, WA
- 2:45-3:00 Break
- 3:00-3:30 Facilitated Learning

Friday

- 8:30-10:30 General Session: *Research-Based Mathematics Instruction for Secondary Students with EBD
Dr. Joseph C. Gagnon, University of Florida - Gainesville, FL
- 10:30-10: 45 Break
- 10:45-11:45 Facilitated Learning
Lunch
- 12:45-2:45 General session: *Uniting Response to Intervention (RTI) and Positive Behavior Support (PBS)
Dr. Gale Naquin, University of New Orleans, LA
- 2:45-3:30 General session: *Putting it Together and Planning for Implementation
Dr. Richard Van Acker, University of Illinois – Chicago, IL
- 3:30 Adjourn.

Registration is limited to 150 participants.

To download hotel and registration information or register online

<http://www.behavioralinstitute.org/ccbd.htm>

For more information contact:

Dr. Sheldon Braaten, Behavioral Institute for Children and Adolescents
Ph. 651-484-5510 or sbraaten@behavioralinstitute.org