

Introducing a new resource for families...

PARENT ACADEMY

For parents raising children of all abilities and needs

*Learning * Discussion * Resources * Connection*

JANUARY

“Bullying 101 for Parents:
What bullying is and its effects”

FEBRUARY

“Who Bullies and Why?
It’s Complicated”

MARCH

“Empowering kids from home:
Tools & strategies for parents”

APRIL

“Communicating & Collaborating with School Staff”

MAY

“It takes a village: Involving youth in anti-bullying efforts”

Winter/Spring 2012 Series

Our Kids, Their Schools, & Bullying Prevention

For parents who want to...

- “ better understand bullying and bullying prevention strategies;
- “ empower your kids when faced with bullying concerns;
- “ support a safe & healthy environment at your child’s school
- “ learn about helpful resources for their kids and families

WHEN: Monthly sessions, either Daytime or Evening

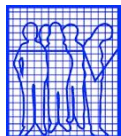

“ Daytime: 3rd Wednesday, 9:30-11am, January - May

“ Evening: 3rd Thursday, 7-8:30pm, January - May

WHERE: In Roseville @ Behavioral Institute for Children & Adolescents (BICA):
1711 County Road B West, Suite #110 S.

PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED:

- “ Register online at BehavioralInstitute.org or call 651-484-5510 (BICA)
- “ Cost: $10/participant/session
- “ $10 gift certificate to BICA Bookstore for pre-registration of 3 or more sessions
- “ Space limited

* A Collaborative Project of Behavioral Institute for Children & Adolescents (BICA) and Advancing Parents, LLC
For More Information, visit www.behavioralinstitute.org or www.AdvancingParents.com

