Effective partners in the commitment to help school children and youth achieve their best. In school. At home. In life.

In cooperation with:

The biennial International Child & Adolescent Conference started in 1982 as a transdisciplinary forum for individuals from education, mental health, juvenile justice and related fields to share information on effective interventions and programs for troubled youth. The theme for the 2010 conference is Bridging Practices to Improve Academic and Social Competence of Children and Youth. We are seeking a wide variety of presentations surrounding this theme from practitioners, administrators, researchers, trainers, advocates, parents, students and others who work in or with education, mental health, juvenile justice or related fields.

Topical conference strands include:

- ▶ Autism Spectrum Disorders
- ▶ Continuum of Intervention and Placement
- ▶ Early Intervention
- ▶ Integrating Academic/Non-academic Instruction
- ▶ Mental Health Issues and Youth
- ▶ Positive Behavior Intervention Support
- ▶ Effective Classroom Management
- ▶ Research Into Practice
- ▶ Safe Schools
- ▶ Services for Culturally Diverse Populations
- ▶ Services in Secure Settings
- ▶ Teaching Core Academics in Elementary/Secondary
- ▶ Transition
- ▶ Personnel Training and Development

BEHAVIORAL INSTITUTE FOR CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENTS

Mission

Behavioral Institute for Children and Adolescents promotes the well-being of children and youth with emotional and behavioral challenges through skill-based and trans-disciplinary training.

Philosophy

The Institute seeks to improve the quality and array of services provided for children and youth by enhancing the knowledge and skills of direct service providers. We believe that parents are essential partners and collaboration is critical.
